Terroir is soil and much more. It is the flavor of a place where the grapes are grown and whose specific and special characteristics will give the wine a distinctive character. Terroir is the protagonist of this range of wines where, every year, the best parcel or parcels are chosen from all the Aveleda farms in the Vinho Verde Region. Parcela do Roseiral is a very particular and unique parcel of Alvarinho that allows to produce an Alvarinho of excellence.

Terroir Parcel between walls. Granitic soil, with high natural fertility that has a marked influence on the aromatic component of the Alvarinho variety.

Harvest method Manual harvest with bunch selection. Cooling of the grapes for 12 to 24 hours.

Vinification and Ageing Low pressure pressing, followed by fermentation, of which 70% fermentation and aging in stainless steel vats and 30% fermentation and aging in French oak barrels, for 9 months.

Sun exposure west
Yield 1.5Kg/plant
Production 3922 bottles

Tasting notes

Fresh and delicate elegant aroma. With notes of white pulp fruit and tropical fruit and wood nuances to stand out with the agitation. In the mouth it is fresh, soft and with a delicate texture, the tropical fruit aromas are more evident (mango and pineapple), along with more specific aromas of honeysuckle and ripe grapefruit. An extremely balanced wine with excellent acidity and balance between minerality and fruit. A very delicate and smooth wine, with a good mouthfeel and a long finish that stands out after aging in wood.

Pairing

- . Fat fishes..
- . Seafood and rich salads.
